AUGUST 2019

AUSTRALIA'S MOST OUTSTANDING HOSPITALITY VENUES REVEALED

Eat Drink Design Awards Shortlist 2019

The 2019 Eat Drink Design Awards shortlist has been announced, revealing Australia's most exceptionally designed hospitality venues. This year's selection includes an incredibly diverse array of spatial environments found in the most unexpected corners of the country, including country bars, inner-city fine dining restaurants, homely suburban cafés, hotels in the wilderness, shopping centre diners and even airport eateries.

The Eat Drink Design Awards recognise excellence and innovation in the design of restaurants, bars, cafés, hotels, nightclubs, temporary venues and retail spaces across Australia and New Zealand. The awards highlight that in addition to amazing food, beverages and service, the recipe for a truly exceptional venue also includes intelligent and captivating design.

"Australia's reputation as a drinking and dining destination has been helped by the great design happening here. This shortlist is a survey of the exceptional quality and diversity in the design of our region's hospitality industry," said Cassie Hansen, 2019 jury chair and editor of Artichoke.

Award categories for 2019 include:

- Best Restaurant Design
- Best Cafe Design
- Best Bar Design
- Best Hotel Design
- Best Installation Design
- Best Retail Design
- Best Identity Design

In recognition of the longevity and cultural significance that a venue can hold in an often-transient industry, one longstanding venue will also be inducted into the Eat Drink Design Awards Hall of Fame. Past winners include icons such as Cookie by Phillip Schemnitz Architect, Jimmy Watson's Wine Bar by Robin Boyd and Frederick Romberg, Cafe Di Stasio by Allan Powell Architects, Fratelli Paradiso by Mike Murphy with later additions by Mike Hanna and Don Cameron, and Icebergs by Lazzarini Pickering.

The Eat Drink Design Awards are chosen by a jury of venerable industry leaders from the hospitality and design sectors. This year's members are Besha Rodell (restaurant critic, New York Times) Nathan Toleman (CEO and founder, The Mulberry Group), Graham Charbonneau (architect and co-founder, Studio-Gram), Phillip Schemnitz (architect, Phillip Schemnitz Architects) and Cassie Hansen (editor, Artichoke).

The Eat Drink Design Awards is Australia's only hospitality design awards program. The awards will be announced at a cocktail event at the Metropolis in Melbourne on Tuesday 12 November, hosted by iconic chef, restaurateur and television personality Matt Moran.
